FEAST OF ALL SAINTS – NOVEMBER 1

We have all known persons who, although often very humble, have given an authentic, admirable and inspiring example of holiness to those close to them. It is right and fitting to celebrate them by associating their memory with that of the saints who are named by the church, as well as the countless others that no such register could possibly contain, even if they were known. The idea of holding one feast to celebrate all holy women and men seems to have started in the early centuries of Christianity. In this time, saints were proclaimed by members of their villages and towns. Pope Gregory IV in 844 A.D. set Nov. 1, as the date to celebrate the life and sacrifices of all the saints. In the tenth century, the first canonizations took place, with official statements by the pope that these men and women have shown love, joy and service to others and Christ.

In recent times, the process of canonizations has become a very thorough procedure involving many years of investigation and reflection. The number of canonized saints is relatively small, yet the martyrology includes over 10,000 names. Today is something far more than a remembrance of the good people who lived on earth. It is a shared celebration of the communion of saints, including ourselves and of our recognition that all creation is united in the spirit.

FEAST OF ALL SOULS – NOVEMBER 2

November is traditionally the month for remembrance of all the dead. We especially remember those loved ones who first loved us, handed on the faith to us and gave us enduring examples of compassion, courage, integrity and service. Masses for the Feast of All Saints and All Souls will be celebrated on Thursday, Nov. 1, at noon and 9 p.m. and Friday, Nov. 2, at 7:45 a.m. and noon in the Duquesne University Chapel of the Holy Spirit.

“Act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God.” – Micah 6:8
At certain times in the history of the Church, popes have called upon the faithful to dedicate themselves to deepening their understanding of a particular aspect of the faith. In 1967, Pope Paul VI announced a Year of Faith commemorating the 19th centenary of the martyrdom of Sts. Peter and Paul. The 1967 Year of Faith called upon the Church to recall the supreme act of witness by these two saints so that their martyrdom might inspire the present day Church to collectively and individually make a sincere profession of faith.

The upcoming Year of Faith declared by Pope Benedict XVI is a “summons to an authentic and renewed conversion to the Lord, the One Savior of the world” (Porta fidei 6). In other words, the Year of Faith is an opportunity for Catholics to experience a conversion - to turn back to Jesus and enter into a deeper relationship with him. The pope has described this conversion as opening the “door of faith” (see Acts 14:27). The “door of faith” is opened at one’s baptism, but during this year Catholics are called to open it again, walk through it and rediscover and renew their relationship with Christ and his Church.

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION IN THE HILL DISTRICT

On Monday, Oct. 22, a Community Conversation was held in the Hill District for participants in the Laval Project as well as the Community Engagement Scholars. The event was a collaboration of SCM and Office of Service Learning. Students were able to hear from lifelong residents of the Hill District on what it means to be a community organizer and activist and what economic development looks like in the Hill District today.
THEOLOGY ON TAP

Theology on Tap is an opportunity for students to meet in a comfortable setting to discuss relevant faith issues. Students who are over 21 are invited to come, grab a beer and talk about modern, relevant faith issues. This month’s discussion is Faithful Citizenship presented by Dr. Darlene Weaver from the Center for Catholic Intellectual Tradition. Join us on Monday, Nov. 5, at the Red Ring at 8:30 p.m.

YOU CAT NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE

THE YOUTH CATECHISM, which is written in language suitable for young people, deals with the entire Catholic faith as it was presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC of 1997), without aiming, however, at the completeness provided in that volume. The work is structured in Question-and-Answer format, and numbers after each answer refer the reader to the more extensive and in-depth treatments in the CCC. A commentary following the answer is meant to give the young person additional help in understanding the questions that are discussed and their significance in his life. The YouCat is available as an iTunes App and on the Spiritan Campus Ministry website.
