Session Outline

- SSRN & Selected Works
- Drafting Abstracts & Using the Web
- Email & Blogs
Key Words & Timing
Drafting Abstracts & Using the Web
Original Abstract for Thurgood Marshall: The Writer

This article profiles Thurgood Marshall as a writer in his roles as an advocate and social activist, a legal scholar and a Supreme Court Justice. It examines the techniques that he used as a writer to inform and persuade his audiences in his life-long endeavor to achieve equality for everyone.
Revised Abstract for Thurgood Marshall: The Writer

- This article provides a brief biography of Thurgood Marshall, primarily profiling Marshall as a writer. In his roles as a lawyer and civil rights activist, a legal scholar, and a Supreme Court Justice, Thurgood Marshall mastered writing techniques that informed and persuaded his audiences throughout his life-long endeavor to achieve equality for all.
This article profiles Thurgood Marshall as a writer in his roles as an advocate and social activist, a legal scholar and a Supreme Court Justice. It examines the techniques that he used as a writer to inform and persuade his audiences in his life-long endeavor to achieve equality for everyone.

This article provides a brief biography of Thurgood Marshall, primarily profiling Marshall as a writer. In his roles as a lawyer and civil rights activist, a legal scholar, and a Supreme Court Justice, Thurgood Marshall mastered writing techniques that informed and persuaded his audiences throughout his life-long endeavor to achieve equality for all.
Web

- Your faculty page
Email & Blogs
Email

SSRN Link
Blogs

- Electronic & Hard Copy Mailings
Questions

aphemingway@widener.edu