HOMECOMING

Spiritan Campus Ministry would like to extend a warm welcome to all alumni and families who are joining us for homecoming weekend!

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

“Wisdom is often discovered at the edge of familiar worlds. As we cross boundaries and engage with other people and other worlds we carry some wisdom with us and share some of their wisdom. Wisdom-exchange is intrinsic to mission. The more we encounter people different from ourselves, the more we will be enriched. The more we respond to people different from ourselves, the more we will be surprised by the many faces of God.”

PRAYER FOR UNITY

God of all, you challenge us to be a unified national community.

You call us to move beyond partisan politics so we may create a vision of the common good so sorely needed for our country.

In this time of confusion, you call us to see clearly with the lens of justice for all.

In this time of disrespect for so many, you call on us to practice respect for all voices around the table, and for all voices not heard in the discussions.

In this time of personal insecurity, you call on us to be grounded in compassion for others and secure in the knowledge we are called to community.

In this time of despair for so many, you call us to practice hope.

God of all, bless our nation at this time and open the way to unity so we may follow your call.

Amen.

INTERESTED IN WORKING ON FAIR TRADE WEEK?

It’s still not too late to get involved in Fair Trade Week for this year! Fair Trade Week runs from December 1-4 and features several events designed to educate the Duquesne community on what Fair Trade is and how it strives to bring artisans and farmers in developing nations to a global market. For more information on Fair Trade and how to participate in the fall semester events, please contact Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu.

WEEKLY MASS FOR PEACE

Please join Spiritan Campus Ministry and the Duquesne community each week as we celebrate the liturgy and pray for peace in our world. The weekly Mass for Peace is on Mondays at 8 p.m. in the Duquesne University Chapel of the Holy Spirit. If you are interested in volunteering for a ministry in the liturgy, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at caloriem@duq.edu or X6020.

FAITH AND FOOD JUSTICE SERIES

Join us for the first event in a three-part series looking at food justice and how we, as people of faith, are called to walk in solidarity with those on the margins.

The first event is a Fair Trade candy bar simulation on Friday, Oct. 31, at noon in the Spiritan Campus ministry Center 2nd Floor. We will break down the costs and process of what goes into making a chocolate bar. The perfect jump-start to your Halloween festivities! If you are interested in attending or want more info on the series, please contact Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu.

COR UNUM AWARD PRESENTED TO WILLIAM LYONS

The Spiritan Congregation awarded the Cor Unum Award to retiring board member William (Bill) Lyons on Thursday, Oct. 2 at the noon Mass celebrating the Feast Day of Claude Poullart Des Places. The Cor Unum Award was instituted by the Congregation to recognize individuals whose personal lives and service have made exemplary contributions to both the University and the Congregation.

As explained by the Congregation: “Bill is a wonderful recipient for this award because of his inspiring faith, lived Catholic values and remarkable service to the Spiritans’ mission—both at Duquesne University and for the Province. His work in the University as a benefactor, teacher and board member is considerable. He has also done yeoman service as the chair of the Provincial audit committee for years.”

Congratulations to William Lyons and many thanks for his years of dedicated service.

LIBERMAN LUNCHEON

Join us for our monthly “nourishment for the soul!” Libermann Luncheons are open to all faculty, staff and administration as an opportunity to come together for prayer and spiritual food! Lunch is provided.

Our next luncheon is Tuesday, Oct. 14, at noon in the Africa Room and will feature current students and alumni of Spiritan Campus Ministry experiences and faith-sharing groups. To reserve your spot, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at caloriem@duq.edu.

FAITH DEVELOPMENT SPOTLIGHT

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Off the Beaten Path was started by Spiritan Campus Ministry and a group of students who wanted to talk about things that mattered to their lives as college students, but didn’t want to add more to their already busy schedules. The group decided that dinnertime was the best time to meet for their discussions, and the tradition continues! This year we will discuss topics of faith, culture and current events from the popular website Busted Halo. We meet every Monday at 5 p.m. for a discussion centered on topics of interest to you!

Bring your dinner and join us in the Campus Ministry Center on the 2nd floor of Towers.

Past topics include: religious articles as jewelry, social media and relationships, what kind of believer are you, discussion of current movies in relation to life and faith, and the problem of evil and our response. If you are interested, please join us! For more information contact Linda Donovan at donovanl@duq.edu.
What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University…the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life’s struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...
