WELCOME BACK!

Spiritan Campus Ministry extends prayers and well wishes, as you return to a new and exciting semester. May you take those moments as a respite from the busyness that life brings!

THANK YOU!

A big thank you to all who participated in the survey given by Spiritan Campus Ministry! Your comments were deeply appreciated and will go a long way in helping Spiritan Campus Ministry bring the most spiritually nourishing offerings to you and your peers!

A NEW ADDITION TO SPIRITAN CAMPUS MINISTRY

Spiritan Campus Ministry will welcome a new campus minister in January. Giovan Cuchapin comes to us from the Catholic Newman Center at the University of Houston, where he worked in campus ministry for nine years. For the past eight years Giovan has worked with Spiritan priests. He also studied with several Spiritans while he was a seminarian for the Diocese of Galveston-Houston. Giovan has experience with young adult and youth ministry and we will be enriched by his presence and talents. Welcome Giovan!

A WIND OF CHANGE IN BIBLE STUDY!

This semester bible study is getting a makeover! It will move to every other Tuesday at 6 p.m., beginning Jan. 13. We will make dinner each gathering, using crockpots, so culinary creativity is welcome as we begin this new journey! Please join us for food, fellowship, community and conversation. All are welcome!

For more information about bible study and its new format, please contact Fr. Bill Christy at christyw458@duq.edu or Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu.

LIBERMANN LUNCHEON

Join us on Wednesday, Jan. 14 in the Africa Room for speaker Fr. Radu Bordeianu! Fr. Bordeianu will offer his reflections on ecumenism preparing us for Christian Unity Week. We hope you can join us. To RSVP for this event, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at caloriem@duq.edu.

MARCH FOR LIFE

On Thursday, Jan. 22, Spiritan Campus Ministry will be sponsoring a bus to the March for Life in Washington, D.C. The March for Life is a peaceful demonstration against the Roe v. Wade decision that legalized abortion. Come and show your support for a consistent life ethic by marching in Washington. We will leave campus at 5:30 a.m. and return at approximately 10 p.m. The bus is free!

“All life has inestimable value even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God’s creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.”

–Pope Francis’s Message to Catholics taking part in annual Day for Life in Britain and Ireland July 28, 2013

To sign up or for more information, please contact Linda Donovan at donovanl@duq.edu or 412.396.1628.

PRAYER

Liberating God, we thank you for the resilience and hopeful faith of those who struggle for dignity and fullness of life.

We know that you raise up those who are cast down, and free those who are bound. Your Son Jesus walks with us to show us the path to authentic freedom.

May we appreciate what has been given to us, and be strengthened to overcome all within us that enslaves. Send us your Spirit so that the truth shall set us free, so that with voices united we can proclaim your love to the world. God of life, lead us to justice and peace.

Amen.

What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University…the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life's struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

- you are worried about grades
- you are in conflict over friends or roommate
- you have questions about your sexuality
- you have concerns about your family or friends
- your faith is challenged
- you or someone you know is ill
- you have questions on morality
- you are facing issues of death and dying
- you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
- you need spiritual direction
- you are considering becoming Catholic, or need preparation to receive the sacraments of Eucharist, Confirmation and/or Reconciliation

FAITH AND FOOD JUSTICE

For the third and final installment of the Faith and Food Justice Series we will be exploring food security at a local level. We will be partnering with Fishes and Loaves, a non-profit based in Hazelwood that seeks to bring fresh and nutritious food to Hazelwood residents. In order to be apart of this portion of the series, you must sign up for the mandatory training session on Saturday, Jan. 24 from 10 a.m. to noon. Following the training you will be able to sign up for a volunteer slot and work with Fishes and Loaves for a day. Transportation will be provided. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu.
