THE ULTIMATE VALENTINE

John’s gospel and letters in particular are filled with explicit messages of love: “Beloved, let us love one another because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten of God and has knowledge of God...God's love was revealed in our midst in this way; he sent his only Son to the world that we might have life through him. Love then, consists in this; not that we have loved God, but that God has loved us...Beloved, if God has loved us so, we must have the same love for one another...God dwells in us, and God’s love is brought to perfection in us...We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love and they who abide in love abide in God, and God in them.”

– 1 John 4:1, 9-10a, 11-12, 15

THE CHRISTIAN LEGAL SOCIETY PRESENTS:
WOMEN IN THE BIBLE

THURSDAY, FEB. 12 | NOON
HANLEY HALL, SCHOOL OF LAW, ROOM 301

Join CLS on a semester-long journey to learn more about how the lives of women in the Old and New Testament impacted biblical history. We are honored to have Duquesne University campus minister, Linda Donovan, leading all five sessions! All Duquesne University students are welcome to attend. Food will be provided.

Remaining Thursday session dates: Feb. 26, March 19, April 9 and 23.

LENTEN LUNCHEON SERIES

Each year the Division of Mission and Identity sponsors a LENTEN LUNCHEON SERIES, which focuses on different themes and points of reflection for the season of Lent.

This year’s first Lenten Luncheon will be Wednesday, Feb. 25, at noon in the Africa Room. Fr. James Okoye C.S.Sp. will speak about his recent publication, The African American Catholic Youth Bible, and will briefly outline some challenges and features of this Bible. He will also discuss some African-American biblical perspectives and raise some questions for ongoing reflection and discussion. If you are interested in joining us for a look at Catholicism from an African-American perspective, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at caloriem@duq.edu.
LIBERMANN LUNCHEON
BLANKET MAKING!

PLEASE JOIN Spiritan Campus Ministry on Wednesday, Feb. 11, at noon in the Power Center Ballroom for our fifth annual blanket-making service event! The blankets will be distributed to underprivileged families with young children in West Virginia’s southern coalfields region, as part of Duquesne’s spring break Cross-Cultural Mission Experience.

In many of these areas, it takes up to 45 minutes to get to a grocery store or pharmacy and over an hour to get to superstores like Walmart or Target. In order to purchase a baby blanket, a family will need money and time to travel, as well as a vehicle in good condition, in addition to funds to purchase the item.

With substandard housing, many of these area homes are not well heated. It is not an exaggeration to say that a baby or small child will be warm because volunteers from Duquesne took their lunch hour to help make a blanket.

If you wish to attend, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at caloriem@duq.edu.

“SHARE A MEAL, SHARE YOUR FAITH!”

JOIN US for a revamped format of BIBLE STUDY! Bible Study has been moved to the second and fourth Tuesday of every month at 6 p.m. in the Spiritan Campus Ministry Center. We will provide a meal at each meeting, along with fellowship and conversation. All are welcome! For more information or to let us know you will attend, please contact Fr. Bill Christy at christyw458@duq.edu or Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu.

What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University—the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life’s struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

- you are worried about grades
- you are in conflict over friends or roommate
- you have questions about your sexuality
- you have concerns about your family or friends
- your faith is challenged
- you or someone you know is ill
- you have questions on morality
- you are facing issues of death and dying
- you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
- you need spiritual direction
- you are considering becoming Catholic, or need preparation to receive the sacraments of Eucharist, Confirmation and/or Reconciliation
