TO SHARE IN THE LIGHT and blessings of Easter, we must share in the Passion of Jesus as a necessary and inevitable part of the faith-justice journey. For Jesus, his Passion was his sharing of, and identification with, the most abject, detestable and humiliating suffering in the human condition.

Jesus shared the worst lot of the victims of human hatred and cruelty. But Jesus not only participated in their lot but also brought hope into this abyss of darkness. By his surrender to the unalterable will of God in total trust even in the face of the experience of God-forsakenness, Jesus transformed this negativity into a source of life. Through the patience, obedience and love that embodied his acceptance of suffering, he made it a life-giving reality.

Jesus revealed a new perspective on suffering and human tragedy when accepted in patience, obedience and trustful love of God and people. He thereby transformed the most bitter and negative human condition into a source of liberation and life. Our conscious sharing of Jesus’ Passion entailed in the faith-justice journey is a true participation in this achievement of Jesus. Not only is it an act of identification with those who suffer oppression, but it is also an imitation of the patience, trust, obedience, and surrender of Jesus to God (his love of God) and his love of all humans.

Through this, we can transform the negativity we face when working for justice and peace into a source of life and of integral liberation. Recognizing our own weaknesses also becomes a share in the death of Jesus “for us and for our salvation,” a share in the vicarious nature of his suffering in the interest of total human liberation.

MASS FOR INTENTIONS

As we are a community of prayer, each semester there will be a Mass dedicated to the prayer intentions of the Duquesne community. This Mass will be celebrated during a noon weekday Mass. To have your intention added to the prayer list and be offered up during this community intention Mass, please contact Mary Beth Calorie at caloriem@duq.edu.

Due to request volume, the intention list will be wiped clean at the end of each semester. All are invited to resubmit your prayer intentions at the beginning of each new semester!

RCIA UPDATE

Our RCIA catechumens and candidates, Linda Pisa, Aaron Stewart, Zane Rice, Sarah Minney and Kyle Peterson, recently attended the Rite of Election at St. Paul’s Cathedral and were recognized by Bishop Zubik. Please keep them in your prayers as they continue their journey to full initiation into the Catholic Church at Easter.

Lord, you set your face towards Jerusalem and walked alongside those who suffer.
Be our vision that we too may walk the way of the cross and extend a hand to those we meet.

Lord, give us the gladness of your help
And support us with a willing spirit.

Lord, you stopped to heal the sick, cure the lame and give sight to the blind.
Be our vision that we too may give time to others and respond to their needs.

Lord, give us the gladness of your help
And support us with a willing spirit.

Lord, you said, “The first shall be last and the last first.”
Be our vision that we too may work towards your kingdom when the exalted will be brought low and the lowly exalted.

Lord, give us the gladness of your help
And support us with a willing spirit.

Lord, you ate with tax collectors and sinners and heard their stories.
Be our vision that we too may listen to the despised and rejected and value their lives.

Lord, give us the gladness of your help
And support us with a willing spirit.

Lord, you took time to pray and time to be silent.
Be our vision that through our prayers, fasting and almsgiving we too may draw closer to you and find your way.

Lord, give us the gladness of your help
And support us with a willing spirit.

What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University…the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life’s struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

- you are worried about grades
- you are in conflict over friends or roommate
- you have questions about your sexuality
- you have concerns about your family or friends
- your faith is challenged
- you or someone you know is ill
- you have questions on morality
- you are facing issues of death and dying
- you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
- you need spiritual direction
- you are considering becoming Catholic, or need preparation to receive the sacraments of Eucharist, Confirmation and/or Reconciliation

IT’S NOT TOO LATE TO BE A PART OF SPRING CLEAN UP!

There’s still time to sign up for the annual Spring Clean Up that will take place on Saturday, April 18, sponsored by Spiritan Campus Ministry in collaboration with on-campus and neighborhood partners. Spring Clean Up helps to strengthen Duquesne’s longstanding relationship with the local community. Students, faculty and staff will do clean-up projects, such as graffiti removal, litter pick up and lot clearing, in Uptown, the Hill District and the South Side.

Team sign-up sheets can be downloaded at http://www.duq.edu/life-at-duquesne/spiritan-campus-ministry. Teams may vary in size from three people to fifty people! All team sign-up sheets are due to the Spiritan Campus Ministry Administration Building Office or Spiritan Campus Ministry Center in Towers by Friday, April 10.

Check-in and breakfast are at 9 a.m. on the Mellon patio and a free “taste of the neighborhood” lunch will be served in the individual neighborhoods. All students, faculty and staff are welcome to participate! For more information, please contact Kate Lecci at leccik@duq.edu.

Please wear Duquesne clothing the day of the event!

SENIOR CELEBRATION

Spiritan Campus Ministry would like to offer congratulations and well wishes to all of the graduating seniors, and a welcome to their family and friends who are on campus this weekend. It has been a privilege to walk with you throughout your time at Duquesne.
