DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY

University CORE Curriculum

THE UNIVERSITY’S STUDENT BODY

5,880
The number of students enrolled as undergraduates (2016).

CORE CURRICULUM STRUCTURE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Discipline</th>
<th>Theme Areas</th>
<th>Writing</th>
<th>Info. Literacy</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>21</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Credit Hours in Discipline Specific Courses</td>
<td>Credit Hours Across 4 Theme Areas</td>
<td>Courses Labeled “Writing Intensive”</td>
<td>Credit, Often Embedded in Discipline Specific Courses</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

THEME AREAS

Students take one course in each theme area: Creative Arts, Faith & Reason, Global Diversity, and Social Justice

HISTORY/ART HISTORY & SOCIAL SCIENCES

One of the four theme area courses must be in History/Ath History and one must be in the Social Sciences (Economics, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology)

THE CORE & DUQUESNE’S MISSION

The University Core provides undergraduates with a common educational experience that emphasizes our Catholic and Spiritan mission: academic excellence, moral and spiritual values, and commitments to diversity, service, and global concerns. A Duquesne education informs the mind, engages the heart, and invigorates the spirit.

EMPHASISES BY CREDIT HOURS

18
Math & Science Courses
9
Arts & Humanities Courses
6
Mission-Driven Courses

THE CORE & DUQUESNE’S MISSION

The University Core provides undergraduates with a common educational experience that emphasizes our Catholic and Spiritan mission: academic excellence, moral and spiritual values, and commitments to diversity, service, and global concerns. A Duquesne education informs the mind, engages the heart, and invigorates the spirit.