Master of Health Management Systems Degree Program

The Master of Health Management Systems degree program is a 36 credit program which can be taken on a part-time or full-time basis. All required courses are offered in the evening to accommodate working professionals. The Master of Health Management Systems (MHMS) program features:

- Flexible and customized electives
- Evening course availability
- State-of-the-art multimedia laboratories
- Professional partnerships in the local health care market
- An exceptional faculty

At Duquesne University’s Department of Health Management Systems, we work with you to help you meet your goals.

30 Core Credits

- Healthcare Delivery & Organization
- Intro to Healthcare Finance
- Health Care Ethics
- Quality Assessment & Performance Improvement
- Health Information Management Policy
- Medical Informatics
- Evidence-Based Decision Making
- Systems Analysis
- Database Management and Controls

6 Elective Credits

- Data Distribution Systems
- Managed Care
- Graduate Internship
- Legal Issues in Healthcare
- Outcome Management
- Long-Term Care Administration
- Study Abroad
- Risk Management

IMPORTANT NOTE: The material contained herein is subject to change from time to time and this publication cannot be considered an agreement or contract between individual students and the School. The Rangos School of Health Sciences reserves the right to alter or amend the terms, conditions, and requirements herein, and to eliminate programs or courses as necessary. Once enrolled, students should consult on a regular basis with their Faculty Mentor and/or Academic Advisor for specific information regarding academic policies pertaining to their respective program.