

One-Day bus trip to DC to participate in the People's Climate March

Facilitated by the Duquesne Faculty & Staff Social Justice Association

"The Peoples Climate Movement is a project of dozens of organizations working together to solve the climate crisis. At the end of April, Donald Trump will have been in office for 100 days. We need to mark that day with a massive demonstration that shows that our resistance is not going to wane or fade away."

Faculty, staff, students and others are welcome!

Each seat $50.

Participants must board the bus from the pickup location behind Mellon by 4:15 am.

The bus will leave DC at 5 pm.

RSVP by April 12th with Faith Bjalobok at bjalobo273@duq.edu to join!
