DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY DINING PLAN

At Duquesne University, we understand the diverse dining needs of our students. One day you may need a quick bite on the way to class and the next you might have more time to relax and enjoy a meal with your friends. To help meet everyone’s needs, we have created a variety of options when it comes to Dining Plans for students.

Join us in the Reverend Sean Hogan Dining Center in Towers for an all-you-care-to-eat meal, made fresh from scratch with locally-sourced and seasonal ingredients! Need something quick? Stop by Campus Market at the entrance to Towers for a delicious On the Go! salad, sandwich, or snack. Need to visit the Student Union where we’re serving mouthwatering salads, burgers, pizza, and sandwiches at The Incline or sit down with a homemade meal or something light and fresh from the sushi bar in Options. For a fresh cup of delicious coffee, stop by Starbucks® in the Student Union or Coffee Tree Roaster in the Law School. When family or friends are in town, plan a visit for lunch or dinner to The Red Ring. When you’re in the mood for something different or a sweet treat, stop down at Fresh ‘n Fresh® for a sweet or savory crisp, frozen yogurt, or smoothie!

There are four different dining plans available, based on your dining habits. Each plan includes a designated number of meals, plus an additional amount of Meal Plan FLEX. Meal Plan FLEX can be used in all of our dining locations on campus at any time, including Fresh ‘n Fresh®, Coffee Tree Roaster and The Red Ring, and works as a declining balance.

PARKHURST FLEX:
Parkhurst FLEX is preloaded money on your Duquesne Student ID card that can be spent in every dining location on campus. It’s like a debit card for food. It’s simple and convenient, and your Parkhurst FLEX rolls over from semester to semester and year to year, but becomes invalid upon graduation or separation from the University.
