The Michael P. Weber Learning Skills Center provides a free tutorial service for students in numerous subject areas. Tutoring is also available for students who want to learn more about a subject such as a foreign language, or who want to prepare for taking a course. Tutors are trained and supervised in their duties.

In addition, a comprehensive study skills program is available to help develop and to enhance student skills as well as to assist students experiencing academic difficulties.
How to Receive Services

If you need help in the following courses, contact the respective department first:

- CORE 171 Core Biology
- BIO 111,112 Biology I & II
- BIO 207, 209 Anatomy & Physiology I & II
- BIO 101 Introduction to Life Processes
- BIO 203 Microbiology

- CHEM 121, 122 General Chemistry I & II
- CHEM 211, 212 Organic Chemistry I & II

- PHYS 201, 202 Physics for Life Sciences I & II

- MATH
  - MATH 100, 110 Calculus with Algebra I & II
  - MATH 104, 114 Calculus with Algebra & Trig. I & II
  - MATH 111 Calculus non Science
  - MATH 115 Calculus I
  - MATH 125 Fundamentals of Statistics

- ENGLISH
  - CORE 101 Thinking & Writing Across the Curriculum
  - CORE 102 Imaginative Literature

- OTHER
  - ESL Any course

Other undergraduate schools and departments may have limited tutorial services available through student organizations including honor societies and professional organizations. Please contact your undergraduate advisor or the student services office of your school for more information.