FOR COMMUTER AND OFF-CAMPUS STUDENTS:

The Office of Orientation strives to make a student's transition and arrival to the University as pleasant as possible. We strongly encourage new freshmen and transfer students to attend all Orientation events. Check out the information below and feel free to call us at 412.396.6641 if you have any questions!

There are a few mandatory events students must attend. You can find these events listed on our website: www.duq.edu/orientation. Please try to plan accordingly. We've put together a list of some frequently asked questions that may be helpful about Orientation 2017 – Duquesne University: The Common Thread!

FAQ's:

Where do I register for Orientation?
As a new student at Duquesne, you are automatically registered in the new student Orientation program. All commuter students must check-in at the Office of Commuter Affairs located in Room 115 of the Duquesne Union. Students will be able to check-in on Tuesday, August 15th during Commuter Pre-Orientation or between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. during the remainder of the week. When you check-in, you will receive your Orientation schedule and name tag that will allow you access to all Orientation events and meals.

Where do I park during the week of Orientation?
Students will be given a special pass that allows them to park in one of the garages on campus during Orientation week. Students who have the opportunity to be dropped off are encouraged to do so.

Are meals provided for commuter students?
All meals during the week of Orientation will be provided at no additional cost to new students. In order to receive meals, students must show their Orientation name tag and Student ID, beginning with breakfast on Wednesday, August 16th running through dinner on Sunday, August 20th.

If you have any questions or concerns about Commuter Pre-Orientation, please contact the Office of Commuter Affairs at 412.396.6660 or visit their website:
