Steen Halling is an alumnus of Duquesne University’s psychology department, as well as Professor Emeritus of Psychology at Seattle University, where he has served as department chair and director of the MA program in existential-phenomenological psychology. His research and publications have focused on topics such as the psychology of forgiveness, phenomenological study of psychopathology, psychology of hopelessness, interpersonal relations, and qualitative research methods. He is editor of the International Human Science Research Conference Newsletter, and author of Intimacy, Transcendence, and Psychology: Connection and Openness in Everyday Life (2008).

Thursday, April 20th at 6PM
Simon Silverman Center

Interviewed by Dr. Claire LeBeau, Duquesne alumnus and current University of Seattle faculty member.

Wine & cheese reception to follow.