Laura Bailey serves as the Director of Educational Initiatives for the Homeless Children’s Education Fund, where her role includes developing out-of-school-time programs and collaborative community initiatives in Allegheny County to improve educational outcomes of children and youth in homeless situations. A Pittsburgh native, Laura attended the Pennsylvania State University where she earned a bachelor of fine arts degree while discovering a passion for education while volunteering with the Pennsylvania Literacy Corps. Laura spent the 2007-2008 school year as a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant at high schools in Vicenza, Italy, and taught middle school art at the Carnegie Museum of Art the following year. Laura continues to enjoy teaching children and adults in community settings and volunteers as a refugee home visitor with Jewish Family and Children’s Service of Pittsburgh.
