A SEASON OF THANKSGIVING!
In the technical breakdown of Pauline letters, which are simply Hellenistic letters with a Christianizing twist, they begin with a Salutation (senders, recipients and grace) and then move on to the Thanksgiving (with the notable exception of Galatians). The Thanksgiving sets the tone for the letter and often telegraphs its intent and concerns. This portion of the letter is known as the Thanksgiving because it often begins with eucharistio, “I give thanks,” or “We give thanks” when Paul includes his co-writers.

“I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord (1:4-9).”

Paul’s thanks for the Church in Corinth focuses on the gift and the grace, they have been given through Jesus Christ, the faithfulness and the fellowship we share in Christ. As we give thanks for our families and friends, our material blessings, a couple of days free from work (hopefully), let us also thank God for the grace given, God’s faithfulness and the fellowship we share with our brothers and sisters. Happy Thanksgiving!

FULL LISTING OF ALL FAIR TRADE WEEK EVENTS!

NOVEMBER 26-29 is this year's Fair Trade Week! Be sure to get a full list of events and speakers on Facebook, Twitter and our website at www.duq.edu/campus-ministry/. Before the week starts, take some time to read a bit more about Fair Trade and how it relates to Catholic Social Teaching principals.

WHAT IS FAIR TRADE? At its heart, Fair Trade is about building respectful, enduring relationships. Fair Trade embodies a certain set of criteria that are included but not limited to:

- Paying a fair wage in the local context
- Offering employees opportunities for advancement
- Providing equal employment opportunities for all people, particularly the most disadvantaged
- Engaging in environmentally sustainable practices
- Being open to public accountability
- Building long-term relationships
- Providing healthy and safe working conditions within the local context
- Providing financial and technical assistance to producers whenever possible

Information taken and adapted from www.fairtrade federation.org and CRS Fair Trade Handbook.

WHY SHOULD WE CARE? “Solidarity is not just a feeling of vague compassion or shallow distress at the misfortunes of so many people, both near and far. On the contrary, it is a firm and preserving determination to commit oneself to the common good.”

— Economic Justice for All
