Duquesne University School of Law reports employment statistics according to the guidelines of the American Bar Association (ABA) and the National Association for Law Placement (NALP).

LOAN REPAYMENT ASSISTANCE

The William B. Billock Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP) seeks to ease the debt burden incurred by graduates employed at qualifying public interest law entities. Individuals who work as public interest law or government attorneys or serve as staff for tax-exempt organizations, and who earn less than $50,000 per year, are eligible to apply for consideration.
