DEAN JOHN J. SCIULLO’S appointment was announced in June of 1982 to a standing ovation at the School’s annual commencement. Sciullo led efforts to maintain quality admissions standards, while strengthening the School’s commitment to the values and ethics of a law school in the Catholic tradition. He served as dean until 1993 and continued to teach as a dean emeritus until his death in 2000.
DEAN LOUIS MANDERINO served from 1968-1970, and during his tenure enrollment increased from 472 students to more than 600. He left the deanship to become a member of the newly chartered Commonwealth Court and, subsequently, a Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. Manderino remained an adjunct faculty member while on the bench.
