Your financial aid for the 2026-2027 academic year is based on 2024 income information. If you and/or your parent(s) feel as though you have a circumstance that has changed since the 2024 Tax Period and/or have a situation that differentiates the individual student from a group of students rather than conditions that exist across a group of students, then you may be eligible to apply for a Professional Judgment.

The following are examples of scenarios that may be eligible for a reevaluation of eligibility:

- Loss of income due to loss of employment or reduction in salary
- Death of a Parent or Spouse
- Divorce or Legal Separation
- One-Time/Non-Recurring Income
- Medical or Dental expenses paid out of pocket and not covered by medical or dental insurance during a single, recent year
- Dependency Override
- More than 1 child attending college

Note, the following scenarios may not be considered for a reevaluation of eligibility:

- Loss of overtime or bonus income
- Fluctuations in self-employment or business income, although exceptions may be made in the case of businesses impacted by COVID-19
- Bankruptcy, foreclosure, or collections cost associated with outstanding debts
- Consumer debt such as credit cards, car payments, mortgage, and other loans
- Payments on back taxes owed to the IRS
- Lottery or gambling winnings or losses
