According to the law of Moses, people with leprosy have to live alone, outside the camp. Aaron or another priest declare them unclean as long as they have a disease.

First Scripture - Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46
According to the law of Moses, people with leprosy have to live alone, outside the camp. Aaron or another priest declare them unclean as long as they have a disease.

Responsorial - Psalm 32: I Turn to You
Blessed is he whose fault is taken away, whose sin is covered. Blessed the man to whom the Lord imputes not guilt, in whose spirit there is no guile. Then I acknowledged my sin to you, my guilt I covered not. I said, “I confess my faults to the Lord,” and you took away the guilt of my sin. Be glad in the Lord and rejoice, you just; exult, all you upright of heart.

Paul writes to the Corinthians, “Do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God....Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.”

Gospel - Mark 1:40-45

Nicene Creed
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
