Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A PRAYER OF A STUDENT

Heavenly Father, I want to take the time and thank you. I thank you for the joys you have given me this day and all the days of my life. I thank you for friends, family, loved ones, and the opportunities to grow deeper in you. But Lord, sometimes words fail me, I ask that you listen to the prayers of my heart; take my wants, my fears, my dreams and transform them according to your will. I ask that you help me to take one day at a time, through the busyness of everyday life, to feel your presence, this day and all the days of my life. Jesus, I love you and I thank you for all that you have done and continue to do in my life; help me to say yes to your will. Here I am, Lord! Amen.

Jesus says, “whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

Gospel - Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus says, “whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
