Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

DAYS OF PEACE | September 11–21

The International Day of Peace is observed around the world each year on Sept. 21. The Duquesne Community celebrates Eleven Days of peace beginning Sept. 11 through Sept. 21.

What can we do to make peace in the world? All men and women of good will are bound by the task of pursuing peace. I make a forceful and urgent call to the entire Catholic Church, and also to every Christian of other confessions, as well as to followers of every religion and to those brothers and sisters who do not believe: peace is a good which overcomes every barrier, because it belongs all of humanity! — Pope Francis “Spiritus Est Qui Vivificat.”

It is the Spirit Who gives Life.

A Song for Peace

Gathering - O God of Every Nation

Gloria – Psallite Mass

(English/Indonesian/English)

Collegville Composers Group

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

Ya Tuhan Yesus Kristus, Putera Yang Tunngal
Ya Tuhan Allah Anak Domba Allah,
Putera Bapa;
Engkau yang menghapus dosa-dosa dunia,
Kasihanlah kami.
Engkau yang menghapus dosa-dosa dunia,
Kabulkanlah doa kami.
Engkau yang duduk di sisi Bapa,
Kasihanlah kami.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Scripture – Book of the Prophet Isaiah 55: 6–9
The prophet tells people to seek the Lord, who is rich in forgiving...
My thoughts are not your thoughts.

Respondorial – Psalm 145: The Lord Is Near
I will bless you day after day, and praise your name forever and ever.
The Lord is great and highly to be praised; his greatness cannot be measured.
The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy.
How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures.
The Lord is just in all his ways, and holy in all his deeds.
The Lord is close to all who call him, who call on him in truth.

Second Scripture – Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians 1: 20–24
Life to me is Christ ... avoid anything in your everyday lives that would be unworthy of the gospel of Christ.
Jesus tells the parable about the vineyard owner who hires workers at different times of the day and paid them all the same amount at the end of the day. The owner concludes, “Am I not free to do as I wish with my own money?” Jesus says, “They last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Gospel - Matthew 20: 1-16

Jesus tells the parable about the vineyard owner who hires workers at different times of the day and paid them all the same amount at the end of the day. The owner concludes, “Am I not free to do as I wish with my own money?” Jesus says, “They last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion - Jesus, My Everything

I’ve been looking for a reason, I’ve been longing for a purpose,
I’m losing all my meaning, I’ve run out of excuses.
Lord it’s hard to know you, I don’t always see your plan.
But holiness is calling me so take me as I am.

'Cause you are my ev-'ry-thing, you are the song I sing;
I'll do an-'ry-thing for you.
Teach me how to pray, to live a life of grace; I'll go an-ny-where with you.
Jesus, be my ev-'ry-thing.

Lord I get so tired of the struggle within.
I settle in complacency and I’m weighed down in my sin.
So lead me past emotion, 'cause they change with the wind.
I want to be a true disciple; to daily choose your hand.
