“Act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God.” – Micah 6:8
PRAYER

Liberating God, we thank you for the resilience and hopeful faith of those who struggle for dignity and fullness of life.

We know that you raise up those who are cast down, and free those who are bound.

Your Son Jesus walks with us to show us the path to authentic freedom.

May we appreciate what has been given to us, and be strengthened to overcome all within us that enslaves.

Send us your Spirit so that the truth shall set us free, so that with voices united we can proclaim your love to the world.

God of life, lead us to justice and peace.

Amen.

Living the Legacy: Honoring the late Rev. Dr. King

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was a pivotal figure for the Civil Rights Movement and one of the biggest supporters of non-violent social change of modern times. His selfless devotion inspired men, women, and children of every race and ethnicity. Dr. King’s philosophy of nonviolent protest, direct action and his strategies for rational and nondestructive social change prompted means to achieve civil rights reform and awarded him the 1964 Nobel Prize for Peace.

The Duquesne University Office of Diversity and Inclusion is sponsoring several events to honor Dr. King, beginning with the Inspire Initiative on Wednesday, January 15, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the second and third floors of the Duquesne Union.

For the complete listing of events and to RSVP go to duq.edu/MLK.

Crafting for a Cause Update:

Thank you to all those who participated in Crafting for a Cause during the Fall semester. All of that knitting and crocheting resulted in a donation of 2 large bags of scarves, hats and gloves to the Red Door program at Saint Mary of Mercy Church. The group is taking a break for the Spring semester, but we will still have yarn available if anyone would like to work on a project on their own.

What is Spiritan Campus Ministry?

Spiritan Campus Ministry (SCM) is much more than a group of individuals or an agenda of programs or opportunities for service. It is the Spirit of Duquesne University...the Spirit that moves, that leads, that guides.

SCM serves all students, faculty and staff—whatever their faith—by helping them understand and engage the University mission and Spiritan tradition so they can share it with each other, their communities and the world beyond.

Pastoral Care- Spiritan campus ministers are trained professionals, lay and ordained, men and women, who are available to serve the needs of Duquesne students, faculty and staff, especially on issues of faith, relationships and life’s struggles.

Feel free to contact Spiritan Campus Ministry anytime, but especially when...

• you are worried about grades
• you are in conflict over friends or roommate
• you have questions about your sexuality
• you have concerns about your family or friends
• your faith is challenged
• you or someone you know is ill
• you have questions on morality
• you are facing issues of death and dying
• you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
• you need spiritual direction
• you are considering becoming Catholic, or need Eucharist, Confirmation and/or Reconciliation
