2016 ACS Student Member Symposium

Duquesne ACS Student Executive Board Members: Christian Gaetano – President; Meg Hockman – Vice President; Stephen Ratvasky – Treasurer; Allison Williams – Secretary; Jimmy Nielsen – Public Relations; Marissa McGovern – Community Outreach; Danielle Bautista, Sarah Sweger, Ayan Ahmed, Megan Wasson, Brea Hogan – Members

April 16th, 2016

Meeting Location: Registration, talks, lunch and poster session: Mellon Hall and the Laura Lecture Room

Registration and Poster Setup
8:30 – 9:50 am Coffee, tea, bagels and donuts

Morning Session (25 minute talks, 10 minutes of questions – with student prizes)
10:00 – 10:05 Prof. Ralph A. Wheeler, Duquesne University “Welcome and Introduction”

10:05 – 10:40 Prof. Peng Liu, University of Pittsburgh
pengliu@pitt.edu
"Computational Studies of Transition-Metal-Catalyzed Reactions in Organic Synthesis"

10:40 – 11:15 Dr. Sara Longo, Airviz Inc.
sara@specksensor.com
“Speck, a low-cost particle counter to measure indoor air pollution”

tc1u@andrew.cmu.edu
"TAML® activators: enzyme-competitive, small-molecule mimics of oxidizing enzymes"

Lunch (Laura Hall) 12:00 – 12:30 pm (Lunch provided – including vegetarian selection)

Student Poster Session (Mellon Hall) 12:30 – 1:45 pm

Award Ceremony (Laura Hall) 1:45 – 2:30 pm

Symposium concludes 2:30 pm

For more information and electronic registration, please visit our site

Everyone (faculty, students and visitors) must register (free of charge), and students presenting posters must additionally submit their abstracts at the same site given above.

Questions? Contact the Duquesne Student Members evanseck@duq.edu