SANDRA PATRICIA MORALES
VIOLINIST

Born in Bogotá, Colombia, SANDRA PATRICIA MORALES began her musical studies at the National Batuta Foundation; she holds her bachelor degree in violin from the Distrital University. She has participated in master classes with Roberto Valdés, Katherine Fong, Cosimo Stawiarsky, Robert Mc Duffie, Simone Bernardini, Latica Honda - Rosenberg among others. She is a founding member of the Youth Philharmonic of Colombia (FJC), and she currently played with National Symphony Orchestra of Colombia since 2011, playing on tour in Oman and Peru. As orchestral musician, she also performed with Philharmonic Orchestra of Bogotá and Nueva Filarmonia Orchestra.

She has attended different music festivals as fellow including Cartagena Music Festival, masterclasses at the Rostock Summer Camp, A Tempo Bogota International Festival, FEMUSC and International Violin Seminar in Panguipulli, Chile.

She was also member of YOA Orchestra of the Americas Global Leaders program, leadership and entrepreneurship for young musicians where she visited music programs and festivals giving recitals in Washington DC, Quebec and Chile.

Actually, she is candidate for Master Degree in Music Performance at the Mary Pappert School of Music, where she studies with Professor Charles Stegeman. She currently performs with different orchestras in the area including Wheeling Symphony Orchestra, Altoona Symphony, Butler County Symphony and Johnstown Symphony.

Come join us to celebrate the Holiday Season at our Christmas Luncheon.
